You will have seen the announcement by the UK government on the 4th January 2021, on further national restrictions being implemented in the UK, including UK school and college closures.

In light of the above Brooklands College will keep you informed via this page with any updates relating to the January examination series and any information as soon as it is made available to the College.

BTEC January Exams Series 2021

Public exams and vocational assessments scheduled to take place in January will go ahead as planned.

Students should attend as previously planned to site, in order to sit examinations during January for BTEC qualifications.

Government Guidance

Colleges, primary (reception onwards) and secondary schools will remain open for vulnerable children and the children of critical workers. All other children will learn remotely until February half term.

In the circumstances, we do not think it is possible for all exams in the summer to go ahead as planned. We will accordingly be working with Ofqual to consult rapidly to put in place alternative arrangements that will allow students to progress fairly.
